

Literacy

Reading 'Floodland' by Marcus Sedgwick
Writing inspired by the picture book 'Flood'
Explanation texts about Earthquakes
Newspaper articles about the Great Storm of 1987

Maths

Multiplication and division (written methods)
Fractions
Decimals and Percentages

Science

Forces
Air resistance
Water resistance
Gravity

Living things and their habitats.
Lifecycles

Enquiry skills
Planning an investigation
Analysing and presenting results

Forest School

Music

Composition
Body Percussion

Art/DT

Study Abstract Expressionism
Create abstract artwork inspired by emotions and feelings

EXTREME EARTH!

French

Transport
My pencil case
School subjects

History/Geography: (Natural Disasters)

The study of both natural and man-made disasters around the world; the science behind them and their impact on humans, animals and the environment.

We will look at these extreme events through a variety of fun and practical activities.

Year 5

PE / Games

Tag Rugby
Basketball

PSHE

Mental health and well-being
Relationships
Respond respectfully to situations

Computing

Internet esafety
'We are Architects' designing houses using computer software