

Spring Week 6 Reading Activities (Year 5)

Read the newspaper article 'Water Levels at an All-Time Low' and have a go at some of these activities:

Design a poster that can be used to promote one of the saving tips.

The headline is not very eye-catching! Could you write a more effective headline?

Complete the comprehension questions that are with the text

Pretend you are the reporter who wrote this article. Your editor has said it is far too long and you must rewrite it in no more than 150 words! Don't forget to include the essential information!

Keep a lookout for more 'good news' stories for this week. Draw a picture to accompany one of these happy stories!
