

English - Life of Pi

Analysing sections of the text
Narrative techniques, using the text as a stimulus
Writing flashbacks
Autobiographical writing in role as main characters from the text
Analysing and writing different poetic forms related to the sea
Book and film review of 'Life of Pi'

History

Vikings and Saxons: Origins
Early Britain
Lasting impact on British culture

PSHE

Children will learn how online experiences can affect individuals, including how media can manipulate images, and they will have the chance to ask questions about staying safe online.

Science

Animals including humans
Looking at the main function of the heart, lungs and blood.
Understand the importance of a nutritious diet and how our food is digested
Understand how to sustain a healthy lifestyle
The importance of exercise
Understand the effect of drugs and alcohol

Year 6 - Eastbrook Primary Academy

Over the Deep Blue Sea Spring term

Religious Education

How do questions about Brahman and atman influence the way a Hindu lives?
How does the triple refuge help Buddhists in their journey through life?

PE / Games

Hockey and Indoor Athletics

Maths

Mental calculations using all 4 operations.
Fractions decimals percentages and ratios and probability
Written methods for calculations.
Co-ordinates
Angles
Measures
Using mathematical reasoning
Problem solving

Art

Banksy - bold stencil style and connecting it to their own silhouette work
Materials can change the look and feel of their designs

Music

Analysing features in music
Binary, ternary or rondo.
Composition
Performing and evaluating

Computing

Children learn to use technology safely, respectfully and responsibly, understanding how to make good choices online. They also use digital software and internet-based tools to create content

Geography

Physical geography of countries the Vikings invaded compared to the Viking homelands, noticing differences in landscape, climate and natural resources.
Learning how settlements develop based on land use and available resources, discovering why the Vikings chose certain places for farming, shelter, and travel.